Those who have not realized God will wander,
homeless in this world, destitute in the next.

But watch the lovers dance with ecstasy,
as they merge into the oneness of God [Allah].

The river of oneness has surged,
quenching the thirst of the deserts and wastelands.
If you don't nurture God's love in your heart,
you will be dry and parched like those deserts.

The Lord is an ocean of oneness
in which lovers swim as they please, free of care.
In their own turn, they appear in the world
to dive deep into that ocean, to gather pearls.
Among the pearls is a gem -- unique in value, unmatched in lustre -- that shines like the moon.

We are all in the employ of the Lord, O Bahu;
let us pay homage to him through our prayers.

Repeat the Name of God,
and always contemplate on Him
while doing your repetition -- keener than a sword is such remembrance [Zikhr, Simran].

Those who enshrine the Lord in their hearts, O Bahu,
have both the worlds at their command.

Lovers remain completely intoxicated
in the ecstasy of their love for the Beloved.
They offer their souls to the Beloved
while still living
and thus immortalize themselves
in this life and the hereafter.

SubhanALLAH
JajakALLAH brother

In the ocean of my heart
arise the waves of my Master's grace.
In it appear whirlpools, in it blow fierce gales
of the countless thoughts and arguments
that hamper my contemplation of the Lord.
I am in an alien land, where I find no support.
To add to my woes, I have fallen in love!
My lack of maturity, my inexperience,
aggravate my plight, and yet --
ever since I tasted love, O Bahu,
I have lost all taste,

for worldly play and merry-making.

"If you desire my life, I will sacrifice it. If you desire my wealth I will give it. But, there is one thing that I will never sacrifice, and that is, the love and reverence for the beloved, Sayyadina Rasool-Allah (Salla Allahu 'alayhi wa Sallam)." A'la Hadrat Shah Imam Ahmad Rida Khan (Rehmatullahi alaih)

A heart among hearts:
the heart that is sublime beyond comprehension.
When your heart advances in contemplation of God,
it will comprehend how there is unity in diversity.
The heart is the essence of divinity in man;
in form and beauty it is the symbol of perfection.
When I contemplated on my true Friend
in the privacy of my inner self,
the temple of my heart was illumined with His Light.
